About the Artisans

HEED Handicrafts

Health, Education & Economic Development (HEED) Handicrafts is a job creation program representing over 250 small co-operatives involved in handicrafts, fishery and agriculture projects. HEED sponsors new initiatives through micro-credit loans, and deals with community health issues. It also provides family gender education programs and manages leprosy hospitals. HEED works with refugees, widows, the poor and illiterate, as well as indigenous tribal groups living in northeast Bangladesh.

Travel the world with each visit to Ten Thousand Villages.

Learn how Fair Trade really makes a difference. Our goal is to provide vital, fair income to artisans by marketing their handicrafts and telling their stories in North America. Ten Thousand Villages sells product from more than 30 countries, providing work for nearly 60,000 people around the world.
